

Cuban Medical Services

TERMS AND CONDITIONS TO PAY FOR ACADEMIC SERVICES, ACCOMMODATION AND MEALS

Payment for the medical specialties

Fees for academic services will cover the right to attend to all school and optional activities, either theoretical or practical lessons, the right to all examinations, including the final state-mandatory examination, the delivery of the Specialist Certificate , legalized by the University at the end of the Specialty course, library loans during the course, access to sports fields and cultural facilities of the Medical University, as well as open access to practice different sports events and participate in the cultural manifestations, scientific tutoring of research papers and Residency Final Paper.

Registration fee must be paid to the account given by the Cuban Medical Services before each academic year starts. Upon registration, the applicant must present the bank deposit receipt (payment slip) . If the deposit is not done before the academic year starts, either registration or continuity of the course will not be official, which implies losing the right to participate in the academic activities, meaning in any of their organizational forms.

The mentioned fees for all courses of studies as well as the specialties do not include the prices for non academic services such as accommodation, national or international transportation, phone calls or internet access, books, printing of materials, visa fees, IDs, legalizations by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or Embassies, any optional or aesthetics medical assistance, paper work and transport of corpses in case of death.
